APR 2 6 1966

Senate Seen Near Stiffer CIA Control

By Don Irwin Los Angeles Times

A secret meeting of seven tions Chairman J. William senior 'Senators heightened Fulbright (D-Ark.) that the speculation yesterday that an senior Congressional commitmaking.

The meeting was one of the been the Senate's only link ment's super-secret global in by CIA to halt the slander telligence agency.

agreement to broaden Senate to in the foreign policy field supervision over the Central to given at least equal access to dot on CIA to data on CIA.

Fulbright's request takes on rare business sessions of a added point in the light of special subcommittee that has two developments of the past with the affairs of the govern-week. One was a vain effort trial in Baltimore of an East-Headed by Sen. Richard B. onian-born agent who had Russell (D-Ga.), chairman of linked another emigre to the the Armed Services Committee consists of the highest-ranking Republicans and Democrats on the Armed Services and Republicans and Democrats on the Republicans and Democrats on the Armed Services and Republicans and Democrats on the Armed Services Committee CIA. Appropriations committees.

Pending before Russell is a out a foreign aid project in request from Foreign Rela-Vietnam.